For both hotel options, availability can be checked via the booking hyperlinks provided, and the discount code MEET26 should be used to access the preferential rate.

For full clarity, the prices shown on the pages are the initial rates, and the discount is applied one step before completing the reservation.

The policies applied are flexible, as they allow changes/modifications up to 4 days before arrival; however, no refund is provided in case of cancellation.

Finally, the codes provided will remain active for use until February 15th. If any guest needs further assistance, they may contact each hotel directly using the respective contact details and will receive immediate support.

After this date, guests will still be able to search for availability and make a possible booking, but discount codes will no longer be active.

Travel to Milos

Delegates may reach Milos from Athens via the following options:

1. Airport → Piraeus Port → Milos (Ferry)

- Transfer from Athens International Airport to Piraeus Port can be made by:
 - Metro (Line 3)
 - Bus X96 (operates 24/7)
 - Taxi
- From Piraeus Port, daily ferry services operate to Milos.
 - Indicative travel times:

- High-speed ferry: approximately 3.5–4 hours
- Conventional ferry: approximately 6–7 hours

Preferential accommodation rates have been negotiated by AGG for conference participants / EFG delegates travelling with MINOAN LINES:

- 4-hour ferry connection between Piraeus and Milos. Departure at 21:30 from Piraeus and arrive in Milos at 01:30. The return trip departs from Milos at 02:00 and arrives in Piraeus at 06:00 in the morning.
- 30% discount on Deck and VIP seating
- 20% discount on selected cabin categories, subject to availability.
- Participants who require a cabin may request availability
- Further details will be provided directly to interested participants so that their names can be given to the MINOAN LINES representative for them to receive the corresponding discount when the ticket is issued.

2. Direct flight

There is also the option of a direct flight from Athens International Airport to Milos Airport, with a flight duration of approximately 40–45 minutes.

Flight schedules are subject to seasonal availability.
